

MONETARY CONTRIBUTIONS TO TRADE ASSOCIATIONS

Subsidiary	Trade Associations	2021 (PEN)
Interbank	Asociación de Bancos del Perú (ASBANC)	1,982,247
Interseguro	Asociación Peruana de Empresas de Seguros (APESEG)	448,314
Inteligo	Asociación de Administradoras de Fondos del Perú	131,065
	Asociación Bancaria de Panamá	34,790
	Asociación de sociedades agentes de Bolsa del Perú (ASAB)	18,000

Monetary Contributions to Trade Associations
Subsidiary	2018 (PEN)	2019 (PEN)	2020 (PEN)	2021 (PEN)
Interbank	1,304,407	1,410,728	1,641,281	1,982,247
Interseguro	410,952	519,540	438,042	448,314
Inteligo	131,440	160,875	184,250	210,964
Total Contributions	1,846,799	2,091,143	2,263,573	2,641,525

Trade Association	Description
ASBANC	Association of private banks and financial institutions in Peru, which promotes an alignment of the companies it represents in various topics that are relevant to them. As an example, Interbank actively participates in the following Committees: Strategic, technical committee, and commissions. Each of these its also divided into thematic groups, which include topics like: risk and product management, communications, regulation, operations, human resources, among others.
APESEG	Peruvian Association of insurance and reinsurance companies, in which Interseguro participates with the purpose of advocating on regularly frameworks that can affect the company, while using the platform to better comply with existing obligations.
Asociación de Administradoras de Fondos del Perú	Membership to industry associations provides a series of benefits such as access to trainings and events, updates regarding data and publications of interest, advocacy before regulators regarding policies and standards that impact the industry, among others. For example, as members of the Asociación de Administradoras de Fondos del Peru, Interfondos has been advocating through the association with other members before local regulators for specifications to the UBO reporting regulation for legal entities, which impacts mutual and investment funds administrators. Likewise, as members of the Association of Societies of Agents of Bolsa del Perú, Inteligo SAB participates in work groups on proposals to improve practices in the industry.
Asociación Bancaria de Panamá
Asociación de sociedades agentes de Bolsa del Perú (ASAB)	